Deputies, Correctional Officers and Civilians to be Honored at Annual Awards Luncheon

Milwaukee, WI – Sheriff's deputies, correctional officers, a state trooper, MPD officer, civilian staff and community members will be honored for heroic acts and community service, at an awards ceremony tomorrow.

Attorney Kimberley Cy Motley will be the keynote speaker. Ms. Motley has lectured worldwide on her experiences litigating in Afghanistan's criminal courts, particularly representing Afghan women who were denied due process under Afghan law. A 2015 documentary, Motley's Law, is a portrait of Ms. Motley, the only Western lawyer licensed to work in Afghanistan's courts, and won the Grand Jury Prize at DOC-NYC, the largest documentary film festival in the U.S.

Among the stories attendees will hear include the following: a number of instances where deputies, correctional officers and citizens performed life-saving CPR at the jail, airport, courts, and on a city sidewalk.

Also receiving recognition are deputies and a trooper who spotted and stopped wrong-way drunken drivers, several who pursued and arrested armed carjacking suspects, and deputies who talked suicidal subjects out of jumping from the Hoan Bridge.

Community Service awards will be given for a local bank's cleanup efforts at Bradford Beach and McKinley Park, an Eagle Scout who landscaped the MCSO memorial to fallen deputies at the Training Academy, and to citizens who intervened to detain a man who they witnessed assaulting a teen.

Major underwriters supporting this annual event are Badger Mutual Insurance, House of Harley-Davidson, Johnson Controls, and Shorty's Shooting Sports Store. Other event sponsors are listed in the awards program and signage at event.

Media is invited to attend. Information on individual award winners will be available at the event.
