Milwaukee, WI – Sheriff's deputies responded to calls about a shooting on the freeway in the Marquette Interchange near Highland Avenue today at about 10:10 a.m. More than a dozen shots were fired into a vehicle in an exchange of gunfire with another vehicle. One occupant was grazed by a bullet.

Four subjects are in custody. The Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigation Division responded to four separate scenes where four vehicles were potentially involved in the incident.

The male victim was driving a rental vehicle and stopped near 10th and Walker streets. Deputies recovered a weapon and arrested the driver and a male passenger. A subject abandoned a stolen car in the Marquette Interchange and fled on foot, and it is not yet known if he is involved in the shooting incident. Deputies found drugs in the car. A fourth vehicle's tire was blown out by a bullet and the driver exited at Plankinton Ave. All vehicles were towed as evidence.
