Witness Provides Photo of Subjects Placing Shotgun Shells at O'Donnell Park

Milwaukee, WI – On Saturday, December 5, Milwaukee County Communications received a call about suspicious activity at O'Donnell Park. Three subjects placed about 20 piles of spent shotgun shells and broken clay pigeon targets throughout the park at 950 E. Wisconsin Avenue and ran from the area. Several of the piles were arranged to spell “BANG.”

A witness took cell phone photos of two of the subjects, pictured above. Though taken from the back, someone might be able to identify them based on their clothing. Citizens are asked to call Milwaukee County Communications at 414-278-4788 if they have information related to this incident.
