MILWAUKEE COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS TO HOLD CLOSED SESSION MEETING OF HEALTH AND HUMAN NEEDS COMMITTEE

Session to address Behavioral Health Division updates

Milwaukee – Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors Chairwoman Dimitrijevic and Health and Human Needs Committee Chair Romo West are announcing a closed session of the Health and Human Needs Committee regarding an incident on October 6, 2012.

“As the Legislative branch of government, the Board is calling this meeting in the interest of fulfilling its oversight responsibility,” said Chairwoman Dimitrijevic.

“The Health and Human Needs Committee is the appropriate place for the Administration to provide a report to Supervisors,” said Committee Chair and 1st Vice Chair of the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors Romo West.

This is a closed session; it will not include public testimony nor will there be media interviews or release of information following the session.
