SUPERVISOR BIDDLE APPLAUDS COMMUNITY ORGANIZATION FOR THEIR COMMITMENT TO LOCAL YOUTH

Milwaukee, WI - Milwaukee County Supervisor Eyon Biddle Sr. is applauding the youth leadership development organization Urban Underground, as they recently announced that this Friday, they will be taking a bus full of local Milwaukee youth to go see the film Red Tails, a film inspired by the heroic exploits of The Tuskegee Airmen, the first all African-American aerial combat unit.

“This is another example of the many contributions African Americans have given to this country. This is a valuable piece of history that every child and adult needs to see. If you don’t know your heritage/past, you won’t be able to see your future and actualize your full potential.

Once again our communities are coming together to uplift each other. These are things that never make the papers or radio waves,” said Supervisor Biddle.

The movie will be shown Friday, January 20th at 7:00 PM at Northtown Cinema, 7440 N. 76th Street. The cost is $5 for students and $6 for adults.

All who attend this showing will be invited to stay for a brief 30 minute interactive discussion about the film.
