SUPERVISOR HARRIS TO HOST TWO TOWN HALL MEETINGS

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Nikiya Q. Harris is inviting residents of the 2nd Supervisory District to join her at two upcoming town hall meetings.

Supervisor Harris will be available to discuss the 2011 County Budget, the Milwaukee County Transit System, Milwaukee County Parks, Mental Health, safety net services, and anything else of interest to residents of the 2nd District.

“I look forward to having a great discussion with my neighbors. As their new County Supervisor, I welcome their input, concerns, and questions about the issues impacting Milwaukee County and our neighborhood,” Supervisor Harris said. “The County is facing some difficult challenges right now, and this input is crucial in helping me make the best possible decisions on their behalf.”

Supervisor Harris Town Hall Meetings

Silver Spring Neighborhood Center

5460 N. 56th Street, Milwaukee

Wednesday, October 13 • 6:00 - 7:00PM

Wednesday, November 10 • 6:00 - 7:00PM

Each meeting will begin with a summary of County Executive Scott Walker’s 2011 Recommended Budget and any amendments from the County Board, followed immediately by public feedback and suggestions.

In addition, the full County Board will host a Public Hearing on the 2011 County Budget Monday, November 1 at the Washington Park Senior Center, 4420 W. Vliet Street in Milwaukee.
