

Milwaukee County

Supervisor Russell W. Stamper II, 5th District

For Immediate Release June 22, 2012
Contact: Harold Mester, Public Information Manager
414/278-4051 or harold.mester@milwcnty.com

FREE CONCERTS THIS SUMMER AT WASHINGTON PARK

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Russell W. Stamper II is inviting 5th District residents to the “Wednesdays at the Shell” summer concert series at the Washington Park Bandshell.

Supervisor Stamper will kick off the first concert featuring the Barrettes, an indie, pop, punk and rock band, on Wednesday, July 11.

“These free concerts at Washington Park are a great opportunity to spend time with family, listen to great music, engage with the community,” Supervisor Stamper said. “I look forward to having a good time and meeting my constituents in Washington Park.”

Kickoff of “Wednesdays at the Shell” summer concert series

6:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m., Wednesday, July 11, 2012

Every Wednesday through August 29

Washington Park Bandshell

1859 N. 40th Street, Milwaukee WI

The free concerts are presented by Supervisor Stamper, Milwaukee County Parks, North Shore Bank, Washington Park Partners, the Washington Heights Neighborhood Association, the Washington Heights Rainbow Association, and Neighborhoods United for Washington Park.

Residents can click here to access the complete concert schedule for this summer.

###