10th ANNUAL BAY VIEW WINTER BLAST AT SOUTH SHORE PARK

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisors Marina Dimitrijevic and Jason Haas are inviting all Milwaukee County residents to attend this weekend’s 2012 Bay View Winter Blast at the South Shore Park Pavilion.

“Although our winter has been mild, there’s still a chill in the air. This event is a great opportunity to come inside, meet your neighbors and learn about the many great community organizations that make Bay View special,” Supervisor Dimitrijevic said. “As I have done every year since taking office in 2004, I look forward to again having a booth to meet and speak with my neighbors.”

“Winter Blast is a great event, and the participation of South Side neighborhood groups shows the strength of our community,” Supervisor Haas said. “These groups have anchored families here for generations. Since I was elected to the County Board in 2011, I have been creating groups for the nine County Parks in my district. My work on this will continue over the next four years, and these groups will help enhance our lives for many years ahead.”

This year’s Winter Blast features a Hawaiian Luau theme and includes live music from the Honolulu Millionaires and a special appearance from the Klement’s Racing Sausages. Activities include hula hoop and limbo contests, spam carving, a tiki photo booth, face painting, food and special activities from local community groups.

What: 10th Annual Bay View Winter Blast
When: Sunday, February 19, 12:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.
Where: South Shore Park Pavilion, 2900 S. Shore Drive, Milwaukee, WI

Participants are invited to wear their most festive Hawaiian shirts for a chance to win a prize. The Winter Blast is sponsored by the Bay View Neighborhood Association. Find more information at www.bayviewneighborhood.org.
