SUPERVISORS TO PARTICIPATE IN FIRST-EVER "GIRLS' DAY AT CITY HALL"

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisors Marina Dimitrijevic and Peggy West will both participate in the first Girls' Day at Milwaukee City Hall this morning. The event is intended to expose young ladies to potential careers in public service, encourage civic engagement and strengthen leadership skills.

Both Supervisors will participate in "The Role of Women in Politics" panel discussion, organized by Alderwoman Milele Coggs, the only woman on the Milwaukee Common Council, and will share their experiences in public service. Supervisor Dimitrijevic is the youngest women ever elected to the Milwaukee County Board and Supervisor West is the first Hispanic. Both Supervisors are thanking Alderwoman Coggs for inviting them to participate in today's wonderful opportunity for girls in Milwaukee.
