"I am honored and humbled to receive such a prestigious award in remembrance of one of the most memorable women in United States history," Supervisor Dimitrijevic said. "I work hard to serve my district and improve our quality of life in Milwaukee County, and I am pleased to walk in Eleanor Roosevelt's footsteps in representing the many diverse neighborhoods in my south side district."

"Supervisor Dimitrijevic has helped lead several initiatives including fair economic development of the Park East land, initiating a county wide green plan, and working to enhance Board transparency through technology," as stated in her nomination for the award.
