COUNTY BOARD CHAIRWOMAN MARINA DIMITRIJEVIC
TO HOLD “COFFEE & CULTURE” DISCUSSION MARCH 14
AT THE MILWAUKEE PUBLIC MUSEUM

Chat Sessions Designed to Discuss County Cultural, Recreational and Entertainment Needs

Milwaukee County Board Chairwoman Marina Dimitrijevic will hold an open “Coffee & Culture” chat at 10 a.m. Friday, March 14 at the “Café at the Milwaukee Public Museum,” 800 W. Wells St.

Dimitrijevic is a member of the Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce’s 48-member Committee on Cultural and Entertainment Capital Needs, which is holding a series of public meetings to determine how to best serve the needs of the region’s arts, entertainment and cultural institutions.

“This is a discussion that will greatly affect the future of our community for decades, and it is important I get the chance to listen to the residents of our county about their vision for our cultural, recreational and entertainment amenities,” Dimitrijevic said.

“Milwaukee County has a long, proud tradition of being a major supporter of parks, recreation and the arts. However, we cannot do it alone. These regional assets need regional support from our partners in other counties. Milwaukee County residents voted in support of dedicated public funding for parks, culture and transit via an advisory referendum in 2008. I am excited to be at the table of this important discussion and plan to have an open mind with a vision for moving our region forward.

“I invite everyone to participate in these chat sessions as the community continues this important conversation.”

Dimitrijevic, who held an informative chat session at the Milwaukee Art Museum earlier this year, will also hold a session at the Charles Allis Museum, 1801 N. Prospect, at 10 a.m. on March 28. In addition, she plans to have future chat sessions at other county-supported amenities such as the Marcus Center for the Performing Arts and the Mitchell Park Domes.
