COLLEGE AVENUE TO REOPEN NEAR AIRPORT
Roadway is major corridor for economic development

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Executive Chris Abele, Supervisors Patricia Jursik and Jason Haas, and City of Milwaukee Alderman Terry Witkowski are inviting the public to celebrate the reopening of East College Avenue near General Mitchell International Airport.

On Friday, November 18, at 11:00 a.m., area leaders will perform a ribbon cutting ceremony just east of the General Mitchell International Airport runway overpass on East College Avenue. All County Supervisors are also being invited to attend.

Following the ceremony, the public is invited to a reception at the MKE Regional Business Park at the site of the former 440th Air Reserve Station, 300 East College Avenue, Milwaukee. College Avenue will be the new front door to the MKE Regional Business Park.

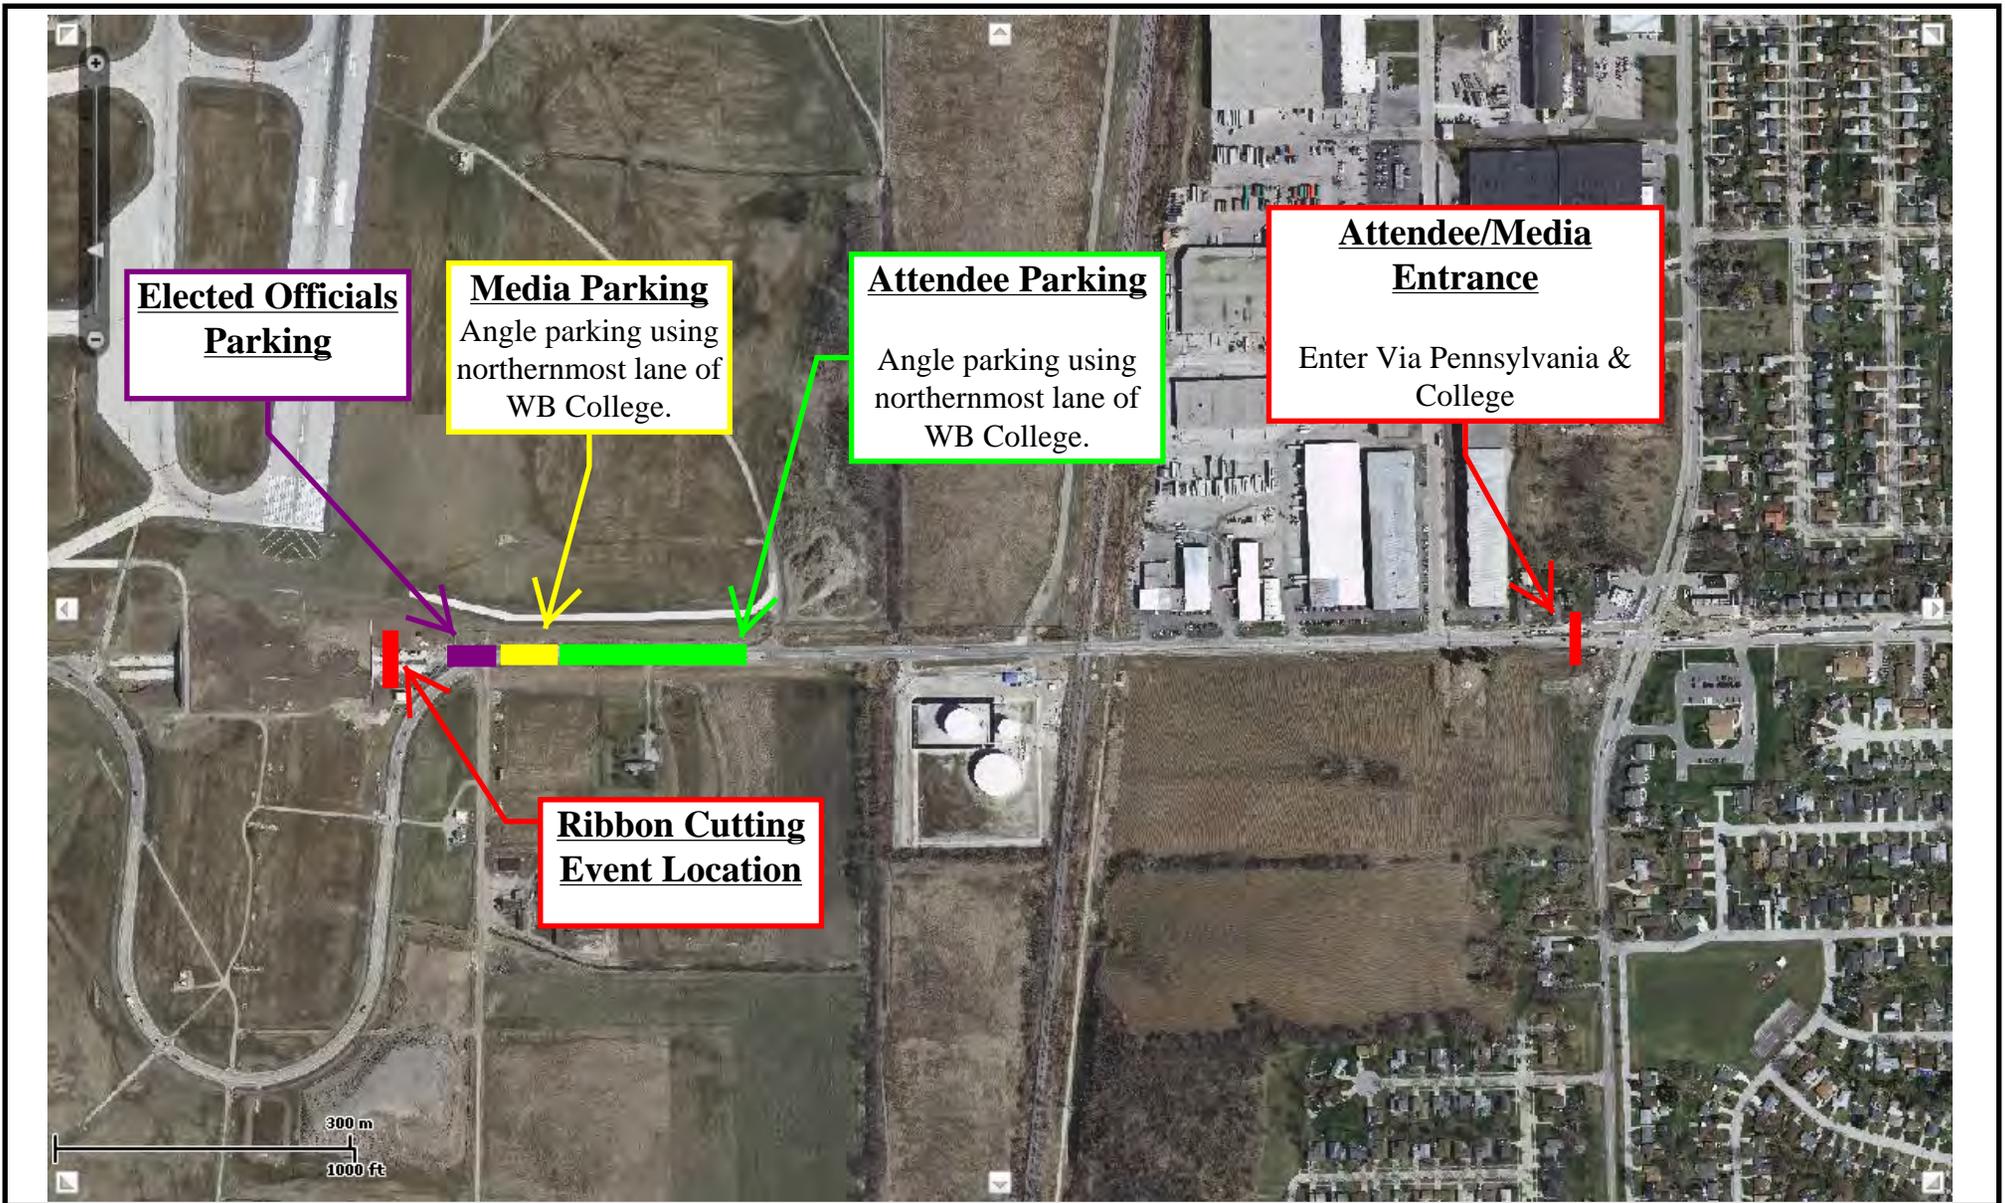

Vehicles can access the ribbon-cutting ceremony by passing through the construction barricade check-point station at College and Pennsylvania Avenues, driving west, and parking at an angle on College Avenue before reaching the runway overpass. This is illustrated in the attached map.
