

MILWAUKEE CENTER
MCFI
FOR INDEPENDENCE

This wood piece was done as a sensory piece in art therapy with MCFI Day Services participants.

Disability Awareness Month 2008
www.county.milwaukee.gov/tap

Michelle Trzecinski enjoys creating art and also takes music lessons. She is hearing impaired.

Disability Awareness Month 2008
www.county.milwaukee.gov/tap

Curative
CARE
NETWORK®

This artwork was created by Adam Spenner, a participant of the Curative - Ranch Day Program in Menomonee Falls. Adam paints while holding a brush in his mouth. He uses bold colors and long brush strokes and his art often has a golf theme. This is a portion of a painting he did of the Whistling Straits golf course.

Disability Awareness Month 2008
www.county.milwaukee.gov/tap

Participants with disabilities painted puzzle pins for Autism Awareness Month at Easter Seals Southeast Wisconsin Adult Day Services in South Milwaukee and Wauwatosa.

Over 750 puzzles were hand painted in a variety of colors with acrylics.

Disability Awareness Month 2008
www.county.milwaukee.gov/tap

Patricia Oblatz has paintings in public and private collections across America and in Canada. She studied life drawing and painting at Parsons School of Design and the Art Students League in Manhattan.

She lives with bipolar disorder and nerve damage from a broken neck. As a result of the latter, she no longer uses brushes and mixes oil colors on the canvas.

Disability Awareness Month 2008
www.county.milwaukee.gov/tap

TLS Transitional Living Services, Inc.
Providing mental health services and advocacy

This untitled piece was painted by Ben True. Ben developed an early interest in art in high school. He currently studies art classes at UWM and has also taken classes at MIAD. Acrylic is his preferred medium for painting. In addition to art, Ben's other interest and talent is playing classical piano.

Disability Awareness Month 2008
www.county.milwaukee.gov/tap

Artist Thomas Yoeckel is a VSA arts award recipient, who currently resides in Milwaukee. His image is a combined medium of acrylic and watercolor and represents "Old Milwaukee" near the river.

Disability Awareness Month 2008
www.county.milwaukee.gov/tap