

Community Reintegration Center
Milwaukee County
Chantell Jewell • Superintendent

Resident Mail
Milwaukee County Community Reintegration Center
8885 South 68th Street
Franklin, WI 53132

Guidelines

Must have a return address to include full name and full address including apartment number if applicable. Any envelope that does not contain the name of the sender will be refused.

Be delivered by UPS, Federal Express or the United States Postal Service.

Residents are permitted to purchase, receive, and read books, periodicals, or other such writings accepted for distribution by the U.S. Postal Service.

Books and periodicals, including newspapers and magazines shall be accepted only if they are mailed directly from the publisher or other commercial source to a named inmate. All books and periodicals must be paperback. In addition, for a book to be accepted, the publisher or other commercial source must be confirmed by the Jail to be a bona fide book publisher or commercial source, and books sent by a publisher or other commercial source with a confirmed history of sending contraband into custodial settings will be rejected.

Envelopes will contain only letters, drawings, or appropriate pictures. Any pictures sent that are deemed inappropriate will be considered contraband and will be destroyed. No musical greeting cards are allowed.

Any mailed items received at the Milwaukee County CRC after a resident has been released will be returned to sender.

All incoming mail will be scanned for contraband prior to delivery.

All incoming mail will be opened and inspected in the presence of the resident.