Sheriff Schmidt said of the OWI-9th and OWI-6th repeat offenders, “Appalling – a drunken driver without a valid license, and both drivers without the sense not to drink and drive, and without the moral courage to stop instead of flee our deputies. Eight convictions and five convictions, and now they find themselves again in handcuffs and face new charges. HELP ME CHANGE THE CULTURE! ENOUGH!”

OWI 9th Arrest - Randolph A. Mantie, age 58, of Franklin

On Saturday, March 17, at about 3:45 p.m., a deputy saw a van with expired registration driving unsafely and passing other vehicles using the right distress lane on I-94 eastbound near 27th Street. The driver initially pulled over, but then attempted to flee from the deputy. The deputy followed as the vehicle exited at Clybourn and North 6th Street. The driver stopped again, jumped out of his van and ran toward the deputy's squad, causing the deputy to draw his service weapon and order the man to the ground. Once in custody, when asked why he ran at the deputy, the man said he was running away because of his prior OWI convictions and he did not want to go to jail.
