County Board and Public Will Hear the Plan to Save Domes

Public Hearing to be Held at the Domes on Sept. 18

MILWAUKEE – The Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors will hold a public hearing regarding the future of the Mitchell Park Domes on September 18.

The public is encouraged to attend, learn more, and share their input regarding a proposed $66 million plan to renovate and revitalize the Mitchell Park Domes and Mitchell Park.

The September 18 public hearing will start at 6:00pm after an informal "open house" (doors open at 5:00pm) where the public can review information about the proposed plan. Staff from ArtsMarket, Inc., which developed the plan in consultation with the Domes Task Force, will deliver a presentation at 6:00pm. Public Comment will commence after the presentation.

Supervisors will listen to members of the public who are present and wish to speak.

After nearly three years of work, the Domes Task Force recommended a "Business Plan and Conceptual Design" for the Domes to the Board of Supervisors in early August.

The Board of Supervisors established the Mitchell Park Conservatory Domes Task Force in 2016 to develop a comprehensive long-term plan for the repair and preservation of the Domes.
