Supervisor Vincent to Host District 11 Budget Town Hall Tomorrow

MILWAUKEE – Supervisor Kathleen Vincent will host another District 11 budget town hall to discuss Milwaukee County's 2024 recommended budget. The town hall will take place tomorrow, Tuesday, October 24, from 7:00-8:30 p.m. at the Greendale Safety Center. Supervisor Vincent issued the following statement:

"Hearing directly from residents about their spending priorities is an essential component of the budget process, and I am committed to providing ample opportunity for District 11 residents to have their voices heard. With the recent passage of historic local revenue reform, it is a great time for residents to get engaged in the budget process. At this town hall, residents will have the opportunity to share feedback and ask questions about many of Milwaukee County's most pressing topics, including the Domes, Milwaukee Public Museum, Milwaukee Brewers stadium financing, Milwaukee County Zoo, and any other County issues of interest. Your input will help to ensure that Milwaukee County's resources are allocated wisely, reflecting the priorities and needs of the people in our community. Please join me in shaping a brighter future for our beloved county!"

This event will provide District 11 residents with an opportunity to learn more about the County Executive's 2024 Recommended Budget and have any questions or comments addressed by the Supervisor.
