MILWAUKEE – Milwaukee County Board Supervisor Kathleen Vincent will join community members to celebrate the opening of the Whitnall Beer Garden on Wednesday, April 29, marking the start of another highly anticipated season in one of the county’s most beloved parks.

The Beer Garden will officially open at 4:00 p.m., with Supervisor Vincent delivering brief remarks and pouring the first free beer at 5:00 p.m. The event is expected to draw residents and visitors eager to gather, connect, and enjoy the scenic surroundings.

“Having lived in this part of Milwaukee County for most of my life, I’ve made so many great memories right here in Whitnall Park,” said Supervisor Vincent. “It’s always special to see the Beer Garden open and to welcome visitors for another season—whether you’re meeting up with friends, bringing the family, or just enjoying a beautiful day outdoors. I proudly invite community members to join us for opening day, and I hope everyone who spends time here this summer makes many happy memories of their own. I’m so grateful to everyone who helps make this space so welcoming, and I look forward to another great season.”

The Whitnall Beer Garden has become a seasonal staple in Milwaukee County, offering a relaxed, family-friendly environment that highlights the natural beauty of Whitnall Park while supporting local recreation and community engagement.

Residents are encouraged to attend opening day festivities and enjoy all the Beer Garden has to offer throughout the summer season.
