SUPERVISOR JOHNSON TEAMS UP WITH GROWING POWER'S WILL ALLEN How will a food crisis impact you?

(Milwaukee) – Milwaukee County Supervisor Willie Johnson, Jr. welcomes Will Allen to an event to talk about the current food crisis, how it impacts Milwaukee County and what you can do to help.

Will Allen is the founder of Growing Power and the “Good Food Revolution.” In 2010 he was named by Time Magazine as one of the people who most affect our world.

At this event people can learn about how to successfully grow a garden, portable gardens and organic farming. This will be a hands-on event, so come ready to get your hands dirty.

Date: Saturday, April 27

Time: 9:30 – 11:30 A.M.

Location: Gordon Park Pavilion, 2828 N. Humboldt Blvd.

After the event Supervisor Johnson and Will Allen will be at the Growing Power Café at 2737 N. King Drive from 1:00 – 3:00 P.M.
