Supervisor Sky Z. Capriolo to Join West Allis “Ice-E Penguins” for Polar Plunge at the Zoo to Benefit Special Olympics Wisconsin

MILWAUKEE - Milwaukee County Supervisor Sky Z. Capriolo will take the plunge with the West Allis Special Olympics team, the Ice-E Penguins, on Friday, Feb. 6, 2026, at the Milwaukee County Zoo to raise funds and awareness for Special Olympics Wisconsin.

Volunteers and participants will begin arriving at approximately 8:00 a.m., with the team’s official plunge scheduled for 10:00 a.m. Supervisor Capriolo will be joined by athletes, family members, and community volunteers, including athlete-leader Tyler Derringer and his mother, who have been active in training and outreach throughout the season.

“Plunging with the Ice-E Penguins is about community, courage, and supporting athletes who inspire us every day,” said Supervisor Capriolo. “Tyler and his teammates lead by example. Their leadership and joy remind us why we rally behind Special Olympics. I’m proud to take part and encourage others to donate or come cheer on the team.”

Members of the media are welcome to cover the event.
