Supervisor Leevan D. Roundtree Jr. Sworn In to Represent Milwaukee County's 5th District

MILWAUKEE – At today's organizational meeting of the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors, newly elected Supervisor Leevan D. Roundtree Jr. (5th District) took the oath of office, officially beginning his term representing District 5.

A lifelong Milwaukee resident with deep ties to the community, Supervisor Roundtree Jr. brings a background in education, entrepreneurship, and advocacy to his role on the County Board. He holds a bachelor's degree in Fashion and Retail Management with a Design Specialization and is the founder of LeVan Haus, a Milwaukee-based fashion and consulting business.

Since 2017, Roundtree Jr. has served in leadership roles across Milwaukee organizations, supporting social services, workforce development, youth mental health, and civic engagement.

"It is truly an honor to be sworn in as your County Supervisor and I'm ready to get to work on behalf of District 5 and all of Milwaukee County," said Supervisor Roundtree Jr. "This is a responsibility I do not take lightly, and I am grateful for the trust placed in me by our community. I look forward to serving with purpose, listening to our residents, and partnering with my colleagues to deliver real, meaningful results."

As County Supervisor, Roundtree Jr. is committed to advancing education, expanding economic opportunity, and supporting youth advocacy. His priorities include increasing access to affordable workspace, strengthening job training and startup support, investing in youth programs, and improving neighborhoods throughout District 5 and across Milwaukee County.
