Chairwoman Nicholson-Bovell to Host 5th Annual Sherman Park Harvest Fest

To Sherman Park and Beyond, Free, Family-Friendly Celebration Features Food, Music, Trick-or-Treating, Community Vendors, and County Resources

MILWAUKEE – Milwaukee County Board Chairwoman Marcelia Nicholson-Bovell invites all to attend the 5th Annual Sherman Park Harvest Fest on Saturday, October 24. This free, family-friendly event will bring the community together for an afternoon of fall festivities, local vendors, and opportunities to connect with Milwaukee County resources.

With partners, this year's celebration will feature free food from Palermo's Pizza and MKE Burger, music by DJ Gideon, raffle prizes, free costumes for children, fall activities, and trick-or-treating from booth to booth.

Residents can also visit a County Budget Booth hosted by the Board Chairwoman to learn about Milwaukee County's budget, ask questions, and share their priorities. Milwaukee County departments and community organizations will offer information, resources, and activities for attendees of all ages.
