Milwaukee County Board to Vote on 2027 Budget

In Recognition of Native American Heritage Month, the Meeting will Begin with an Invocation from Dan Terrio, Area Extension Director, Milwaukee County UW Extension Stockbridge-Munsee Community Band of Mohican Indians

MILWAUKEE – The Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors will convene on Thursday, November 6, 2025, at 9:30 a.m. for their annual budget adoption meeting. This meeting culminates weeks of committee review and public feedback. Supervisors will consider amendments to the County Executive's recommended 2026 budget and vote on the amended budget for adoption.

The Board will consider a collaborative amendment led by Chairwoman Nicholson-Bovell and Finance Committee Chairman Taylor that prioritizes investments in community services, food access, parks, youth programs, and public health while reducing the proposed property tax levy and is co-sponsored by Supervisors Shawn Rolland, Caroline Gómez-Tom, Steven Shea, Sheldon A. Wasserman, Justin Bielinski, Sky Z. Capriolo, Jack Eckblad, Anne O'Connor, Kathleen Vincent, Juan Miguel Martinez, Felesia A. Martin, Patti Logsdon, Leevan D. Roundtree Jr., and Priscilla E. Coggs-Jones. The amendment passed unanimously through the Committee on Finance and builds on the County Executive's Recommended Budget by investing in community services, food access, parks, youth programs, and public health while reducing the proposed property tax levy. Supervisors will consider the amendment as part of the full Board's budget adoption process. Supervisors will also consider separate amendments.

In honor of Native American Heritage Month, the meeting will open with a Land Acknowledgment and invocation from Dan Terrio, Area Extension Director, Milwaukee County UW Extension Stockbridge-Munsee Community Band of Mohican Indians. This introduction upholds Milwaukee County's commitment to honoring the contributions of Indigenous communities past and present during November and beyond.
