Supervisor Felesia A. Martin to Host Dineen Park Strategy Session Focused on Community Safety

MILWAUKEE – Milwaukee County Supervisor Felesia A. Martin will host a Dineen Park Strategy Session on Thursday, November 13, to provide an opportunity for residents to discuss safety concerns and share ideas for building a stronger, safer community.

The event will bring together local leaders and representatives from key agencies to listen, collaborate, and identify next steps for promoting neighborhood safety and well-being.

Confirmed attendees include Alderwoman Sharlen Moore, Alderman Mark Chambers, Jr., State Senator LaTonya Johnson, State Representative Supreme Moore Omokunde, and representatives from the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office (MCSO), Office of Emergency Management (OEM), and members of the Dineen Park Neighborhood Association.

Supervisor Martin encourages residents to attend and take part in this important community conversation:

"This is about coming together as neighbors and partners to create real, lasting solutions for our community's safety," said Supervisor Martin.
