Supervisor Coggs-Jones and Chairwoman Nicholson to Host Community Cleanup

MILWAUKEE – County Supervisor Priscilla E. Coggs-Jones and Chairwoman Marcelia Nicholson will host a community cleanup on Saturday, July 24 from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm.

Volunteers will gather at Employ Milwaukee, located at 2342 N. 27th Street, and plan to clean up areas along N. 27 Street between North Avenue and Center Street.

"A clean neighborhood instills a sense of pride in those who live there," said Supervisor Coggs-Jones. "If we can change the way we view our community then we can change the minds of our community. I look forward to seeing residents of the 10th District come out and support this cleanup."

Community members are encouraged to volunteer and can simply show up Employ Milwaukee on the day of the cleanup. No advanced registration is required.

Any questions about the event can be directed to Supervisor Coggs-Jones' office by phone at (414) 278-4265 or by emailing Legislative Assistant Deon Canon, deon.canon@milwaukeecountywi.gov

Keep Greater Milwaukee Beautiful is partnering with Supervisor Coggs-Jones and Chairwoman Nicholson on this effort.
