Chairwoman and Supervisors to March in Milwaukee Pride Parade

MILWAUKEE - Milwaukee County Board Chairwoman Marcelia Nicholson-Bovell and Supervisors Priscilla E. Coggs-Jones, Jack Eckblad, Caroline Gómez-Tom, Leevan Roundtree Jr., Shawn Rolland, Anne O'Connor, and Kathleen Vincent will join thousands of community members this weekend in the Milwaukee Pride Parade, celebrating the resilience, visibility, and contributions of LGBTQ+ residents across Milwaukee County.

The Milwaukee County Board's parade banner will feature the intersex-inclusive Progress Pride flag in accordance with its 2023 resolution, symbolizing the County's commitment to inclusion and visible support for LGBTQIA2S residents.

The annual parade brings together families, advocates, community organizations, elected officials, and allies in a joyful demonstration of inclusion and solidarity. County Board Supervisors offered the following joint statement about their participation in this year's parade:

"As we proudly march in this year's Pride Parade, we celebrate the vibrant LGBTQ+ community that helps make Milwaukee County stronger. Pride is a joyful celebration of authenticity, community, and the freedom to be yourself. Milwaukee County remains committed to building a future where every person belongs, every person feels seen, and every person knows there is a place for them in our community."
