Milwaukee County Supervisors Raise Questions About Charging Decision in Corey Ruiz Case

MILWAUKEE – Milwaukee County Board Supervisors Shawn Rolland, Juan Miguel Martinez, Caroline Gómez-Tom, Leevan D. Roundtree Jr., Anne O'Connor, Willie Johnson Jr., First Vice-Chair Steven Shea and Second Vice-Chair Priscilla E. Coggs-Jones have released the following statement regarding the charging decision in the Corey Ruiz case:

> "If it takes five months to determine if charges are warranted, most people would think there's enough evidence to let a jury decide. This is what juries are for. Let a jury do its job. We've all seen the video. This is not a decision most Wisconsinites want to see made behind closed doors. That evidence deserves its day in court."
