Supervisor Kathleen Vincent and Supervisor Patti Logsdon Invite Constituents to Town Hall Meetings on Proposed Sales Tax Increase

MILWAUKEE — County Supervisors Kathleen Vincent and Patti Logsdon jointly announced today that they will be hosting two town hall meetings to engage with constituents and gather their valuable feedback on the proposed 0.4% increase of the county sales tax.

Recognizing the impact such a measure may have on residents, local businesses, and visitors alike, Supervisors Vincent and Logsdon are committed to fostering transparency, collaboration, and informed decision-making:

"As an elected official, my first priority is always to ensure that the voices of our community members are heard and considered when making decisions that affect their lives," said Supervisor Vincent. "My hope is that these town hall meetings will provide an opportunity for residents to have their questions answered, express their concerns, and contribute to the ongoing conversation regarding this important matter. I look forward to hearing from my constituents and learning from their perspectives."

The details of the town hall meetings are as follows:

- Greendale Safety Center — 5911 W. Grange Ave. Greendale, WI 53129
  - Tuesday, July 18th from 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

- Greenfield Public Library — 5310 W. Layton Ave. Greenfield, WI 53220
  - Saturday, July 22nd from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM

All residents are encouraged to attend and actively participate in this community-driven discussion, regardless of their stance on the issue.

Supervisors Vincent and Logsdon will be joined by other Milwaukee County officials who will provide insights and clarifications on the potential implications of the sales tax increase.
