Milwaukee County Election Commission to Report 2021 Spring Election Results

MILWAUKEE – The Milwaukee County Election Commission will report the results of the 2021 Spring Elections in real time on Tuesday, April 6 in the cafeteria of the County Courthouse. Results will also be posted online throughout the evening at the County Clerk’s web site.

Races reported by Milwaukee County include two seats on the Milwaukee Board of School Directors, the Milwaukee County 10th Supervisory District, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and several local elections across 19 municipalities.

The Election Commission will report results starting at approximately 8:00 p.m. Doors open to the public at 7:00 p.m. Media, election observers, and the public should enter on 10th Street.

The Election Commission has asked potential attendees to RSVP in advance so that proper Covid-19 measures can be put into place, via electioncomm@milwaukeecountywi.gov.

Face masks and health screenings are required to enter the Courthouse.
