Election Commission, Clerk Christenson to Brief Media on Election Night Procedures

MILWAUKEE – The Milwaukee County Election Commission will hold a press conference on Monday, October 28, at 3:00 p.m. in the Milwaukee County Courthouse cafeteria to provide the media with essential information regarding procedures, security measures, and expectations for election night. Milwaukee County Clerk George L. Christenson and Elections Director Michelle R. Hawley will be available to answer questions about the updated election protocols.

The courthouse cafeteria will serve as the primary location for real-time updates on election night, with doors opening to the public at 7:00 p.m. The Election Commission will post election results on its website throughout the evening, and Clerk Christenson will provide periodic in-person updates for the media and the public.

Media personnel, election observers, and members of the public should enter through the 10th Street doors, where security screenings and check-in will be conducted.

What to Expect at Monday’s Press Conference:

- Election night security protocols for media and members of the public
- Procedures for the secure delivery of results from municipalities to the courthouse
- Traffic and access updates, including the closure of North 10th Street to general traffic with the exception of Election Officials and law enforcement
- Details on the subsequent canvass of the election
