MILWAUKEE COUNTY SENIOR DINING

Background

Primarily funded by Older Americans Act dollars, senior nutrition programs are designed to serve as gathering places for older adults (60+). There is tremendous value and opportunity in bringing people together to enjoy nutritious meals. Sharing food and engaging conversations with others is a powerful experience that encourages new connections, strengthens existing ones and ultimately improves our community.

Equally as beneficial can be the exposure to new information, awareness of relevant programs and attention to activities that promote health and well-being. While these popular services have been around for decades, excitement has been especially high around our award-winning Dine Out Restaurant partnership which adds convenience, flexibility and much needed diversity to the lineup.

We are committed to continuing these essential services while decreasing barriers to access, addressing gaps in service and introducing new & innovative solutions that keep us moving forward with satisfied customers.

HOW TO EAT BETTER

CREATE A HEALTHY EATING PATTERN

Eat well-balanced meals throughout the day to keep your heart and brain working at their best. Don't worry about "special foods" – a variety of healthy foods is best.

HEALTHY PLATE

ENJOY

vegetables, fruits, whole grains, beans, legumes, nuts, plant-based proteins (like beans, lentils, nuts), lean animal proteins (like skinless poultry, fish, seafood, low-fat dairy). Drink plenty of water throughout the day, and unsweetened tea and coffee can also be enjoyed.

LIMIT

sweetened drinks and alcohol. Eat less salty food, fatty foods, and processed meats. Limit foods like butter, whole milk, full-fat yogurt, and cheese. Take the skin off poultry before cooking. Use plant-based oils, such as olive, canola, or avocado oil, instead of oils like coconut or palm oil.

AVOID

trans fats. Trans fats are found in some store-bought baked goods and fried foods.

Understanding food labels can help you make healthier choices.

When you have more than one choice, compare nutrition facts. Foods with less sodium, bad fats (saturated and trans fats), and added sugars are better for you.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS

WATCH PORTIONS

Make room for healthy portions of different food groups in your meals and snacks.

COOK AT HOME

Cooking at home can be more nutritious than eating out. Fresh, frozen or canned fruits and vegetables are all great options. If they are canned or frozen make sure they don't have added sugars or salt. Learn healthy prep methods at heart.org/eatsmart.

LOOK FOR THE HEART-CHECK

The Heart-Check mark helps you find foods that can be part of a healthy eating plan.
