Treasurer Diliberti Honored by County Executive Abele

Milwaukee County Treasurer Dan Diliberti received a proclamation from County Executive Chris Abele in honor of his retirement, at a Fund-raiser/farewell event in the Treasurer's Office on Tuesday, April 29, 2014. The event raised over $4000 for Dan's and his wife Ann's favorite organizations – NAMI Greater Milwaukee, National Alliance on Mental Illness.

Executive Proclamation

WHEREAS, Milwaukee County Treasurer Dan Diliberti will retire from his position in May 2014 after 10 years of service to Milwaukee County as treasurer; and

WHEREAS, prior to his term as treasurer, Dan served Milwaukee County for 12 years as the 8th County Supervisor on the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors where he served as vice-chair of the County Board for eight years ; and

WHEREAS, from an early age, Dan dedicated himself to service as a member of both the Peace Corps and Volunteers in Service to America; and

WHEREAS, Dan has lead the Milwaukee County Treasurer's Office to receive national and local awards for innovation and modernization of treasury functions such as the Public Policy Forum's Salute to Local Government for Innovative Response to Tough Economic Times - an award from the Public Policy Forum for promoting efficient and economic government - as well as being recognized at Treasury and Risk Magazine's Best Practices Summit and Awards Conference by receiving the prestigious Alexander Hamilton Award in New York City in 2012; and

WHEREAS, Dan is a member of the Knights of Columbus, the board of the Pere Marquette Foundation, the Jackson Park Business Association, the Milwaukee Task Force on Drug Abuse, and the Public Policy Forum; now, therefore

I, CHRIS ABELE, County Executive for Milwaukee County, do hereby honor and thank

for his extraordinary work and service to the Milwaukee County community and Treasurer's Office, and congratulate him on his retirement.
